Ruby was on of those people that made the world a little brighter and better with all that she did and tried to do for people. She loved the Lord and praised Him for each day. She truly was a sister in Christ and a great aunt. We will miss her prayers and presence in our lives. I have so many ways that she blessed me and my family. We will truly miss her. I carry her memories and try to love others as she loved me. She was family, and she will truly be missed. However, one day we will see her again.

“ Ruby Lewis was the vivacious young woman at the dorm first day at Truett-McConnell college when I arrived to begin my college education. She was not only a teacher but friend and gave much of herself to students and the college. I know the mantra of giving has been her life story, and to her family and friends I send my condolences, love and blessings. Life is richer for having known her.
