Thank you for having this video so that we could be present in spirit even though we were not there in person. We will always remember that Russell was a great man who loved his wife and family. He had kindness in his heart and we were blessed to be able to call him family. He will be a part of who we all are because he has been a part of our lives. It gives us peace to know that he is together again with Jane Ann.

*Much love,
Florence and Butch*

“ Russell was my second father. He was a big, gentle bear of a man. I will miss him forever, but I am so very grateful for the blessing of having both he and Jane Ann in my life.
