“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

*Lorene & Family, Sorry to hear of the home going of Sam at this time. We miss you both in the Crusader's Sunday School class but we know Sam is in a better place. We all love you both. Since I am not able to drive at this time, I will not be able to come to the funeral. We won't forget Sam's quick wit and have fond memories of the past when the class was so large and we made trips to various places and did all the crazy things we did together. Remember, I love you. “ Lorene, Tim, Ty and family,

Our sincere sympathy to all of you in the passing of your beloved husband, father and granddad. Mr. Sam was one in a million and it was a pleasure knowing and singing with him the short time before we moved to SC. Our memories of him are wonderful and we often remark about his humorous side. It is going to be a big loss for his family and friends, but you can rest assured that he is serenading the angels and having a big party in heaven. Our love and prayers are with each of you.

*Love,
