

Scott Carl Horwath

November 22, 1961 - April 22, 2020

Scott Carl Horwath, age 58 of Conyers, died Wednesday, April 22, 2020, from complications related to ALS. He is survived by his parents, Fred and Shirley Horwath; wife, Kim Horwath; son and daughter-in-law, Michael and Jenn Horwath; son, Steven Horwath; daughter, Sarah Horwath; sister, Kris Taylor; grandchildren, Lexi Horwath and Everly Horwath. Scott was a devoted husband to Kim, and father to Michael, Steven and Sarah. He was the kids' number one fan when it came to their sports, cheering them on and coaching whenever needed. Scott was a man of many interests. He loved doing things with his family and friends, was an avid puzzler, and a hunting and camping enthusiast. He enjoyed going to concerts, listening to music on his custom home audio system, and going on family trips when and wherever he could. Scott enjoyed all kinds of athletics whether it was high school football and baseball, men's softball or golfing. He loved it all. You could find him during Baseball and Football seasons watching the Yankees and Giants. He loved cars - his yellow Mustang and 1954 Buick and even his RC model cars. Scott loved get-togethers with family and friends. He always had a smile and a laugh and was ready to contribute with homemade beer or cooking a favorite on the grill. Scott managed his illness due to ALS with bravery, grace and dignity. He will leave a lasting impression in so many people's lives; he is gone but will never be forgotten. The family will receive friends Tuesday, April 28, 2020, from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM at the funeral home. Condolences may be submitted on-line at www.scotward.com. Scot Ward Funeral Services, 699

“ Scott was my cousin and while I hadn't seen him in many years, I remember him. He was kind, funny, always wanting to make others around him feel 10 ft tall. He was just a good man, plain and simple. I remember him being so impressed with me as a young athlete and how cool it was to have my cousin think so highly of me. Rest in peace, Scott.

“ One of my favorite parts of the year was getting to spend Christmas with the Horwaths. I am incredibly grateful to have spent more time with Scott in this past year than I ever have before, and seeing the joy on his face when we got the family together to celebrate was one of my favorite memories. Scott lit up any room he entered and made everyone instantly feel welcomed, loved, and accepted, despite what he was going through. I will never forget the meals shared together, because whether it was at their place, Janice and John's, or Sarah and Clint's, he never failed to lighten the mood with witty sarcasm and humor. Thanks for your contagious joy and kindness, you'll be missed Scott ❤️

“ This is a tattoo drawn by Scott’s granddaughter Lexi to represent her and her sister Everly. They know that Grandpa would’ve gotten it drawn on him immediately! It has their birth flowers and memories Lexi has with him. So sweet!
