“ *To My Dear Husband Tommy,
I miss you after 48 years of marriage and companionship. We were always together and lived a happy life until affliction and sickness separated us.
I am currently hospitalized, but my heart's earnest desire is to be there and to see you being laid to rest, but that would be detrimental to my health. The doctors will not release me to travel in this condition.
You may be separated from me in person, but you will continue to live in my heart.
I love you dearly. Rest in peace my love.
Your Wife Tommy.*

“ Thanking the Lord for the wonderful memories we shared with Brother Thomas and his wife Elsada in Evanston, Illinois and in Georgia. He always had a kind smile and served faithfully as an Usher at the New Testament Church of God in Evanston. Elsada always lovingly referred to him as “Tammy”. Rest In Peace our beloved brother safe in the arms of Jesus 🙏❤️❤️

Rest in Peace “Tommy” as he’s affectionally known. But for me it was just Brother Thomas. Until we all meet again.
