

Mark Dockery

July 23, 1968 - April 4, 2026

Beloved husband and father, Mark Dockery, went to be with his Lord and Savior on Holy Saturday, April 4, at the age of 57.

Born in Gainesville, Georgia, on July 23, 1968, Mark was a steady source of strength and stability for his family. He goes before his devoted wife, Cheryl; his four children, Brandon, Austin, Luke, and Nyah; and his two grandsons, Holton and Easton. He is also lovingly remembered by his parents, Dan and Sandy, and his siblings, Stacey and Joy.

Throughout his life, Mark worked in a variety of fields, ultimately finding great success as an entrepreneur. He took great pride in his work as an automotive cosmetic technician, where his skill and craftsmanship were clearly evident. Mark cherished time with family and friends above all else. He especially valued moments spent together in prayer, conversation, and laughter, and perhaps most (in)famously, in playfully scaring those closest to him. Anyone on the receiving end of one of his legendary jump scares was almost certain to be met with one of the most infectious laughs imaginable. He also enjoyed playing golf, listening to music, weight training, and cheering on his Georgia Bulldogs.

Above all, Mark was a faithful follower of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, whose life, death, and resurrection instilled in him an enduring peace and an everlasting hope.

I am so sorry to hear of the loss of Mark. I am a customer of Stonecrest Honda. I knew Mark for a very long time. When I had damaged to my car, Mark is the person that I went to get it fixed to the point where you could not tell anything ever happened. I even sent my sister to him and she didn't have a Honda. I often asked about him to find out how he was doing. My condolences to the family and I pray that God will continue to lift you up. Thank you for sharing Mark and his amazing skills.
