“ I'm so sorry to hear of Aunt Shirley's passing. I know she's in a better place now, but that doesn't fill the hole her death leaves in our hearts. I have such wonderful memories of time at Shirley and Rex's house when I was a kid.

We sit here and think of the many years we have known Rex and Shirley. So many memories flood our minds that it is hard to choose just a couple. Family night suppers at Smyrna were special for many foods but to get a serving of Shirley's chocolate nut goddy was special. Then it was always good to see her in the winter sitting in a rocking chair by the fireplace and if it was there she would have a bowl of ice cream. The fact that she and her sisters cooked so many meals for the Smyrna youth camps reflects upon her Christian servant attitude. Thanks for so many great memories Shirley. Arthur & Cathy Vaughn

Rex, Neil & Libby, Ms. Shirley always had a smile for me. She was quiet but had that quiet dignity that true Southern ladies have. May God comfort you. Carolyn Smith

*I met Shirley and her lovely daughter Libby at Smyrna but I really got to experience Shirley in our Women Circle 3 as we visited each month. She was such a lovely, caring person with a great appreciation for all things that were well cooked and sweet. May her soul rest in peace and may the family experience God's Love at this time
