“ Aww, that is a beautiful picture of her! We love you and miss so much Stephanie. There hasn't been a day that's gone by that we haven't thought about you or prayed for John and the kids! I know your in a much better place than this nasty ol stinkin world we live in, and finally that foot of yours isn't giving you anymore pain but we still miss you! We can't wait to see you again! ❤️

“ I'm deeply sorry for your loss. I hope the words found in the bible at Isaiah 25:8 brings comfort. God promises to "swallow up death forever". No more will we have to suffer heartache for God says he will "wipe away the tears from all faces". Such a joyous time it will be; reunited with our dead loved ones!

“ I remember when our baby sister Brittany was born, me and Stephanie would get in so much trouble with our mom, because we would put Brittany in my baby dolls clothes. She was so little and it was so funny and cute. I miss you dearly sis. Have fun with Momma and Boopie and your babies.

“ She was the best and most wonderful christian, friend, mother, wife, and nana, and mother in law that anyone could ever ask for. She was like another mom to my husband and I, she had a heart of gold and never talked bad about anyone. She's now in heaven with our savior looking down on her children and husband. Her husband and children still have a long road to recovery. Please everyone continue to keep them all in your prayers during this trial they are having to face. You'll always have a place in our hearts with your caring and humbled heart, those silly faces you'd make just to put a smile on someone's face and that sence of humor of yours, we love you Stephanie and may you rest in peace. You will be greatly missed and always loved. Your family has more than enough people here to help them, love them and care for them. Don't you worry we'll always be here for them. ❤️

*Love Always,
John & Stephanie Calhoun*
