“ We met Sue 2 years ago when we started living beside her. She was such a pleasant and beautiful person both in and out. Always loved her garden and loved sharing the vegetables she grew. I will certainly miss her loving smile and warmth personality.

“ We were so privileged to know Susan and spend time with her and Bob. She lightened his heart and they had fun just living and being and traveling together. She was truly a special lady who fought so valiantly. She will be missed forever by all of us who knew her.

“ Susan was my cousin, we spent sometime together when we were young. Then as we got older we lost time with each other. I met her again in 2013 when my sister and I went to my Uncle Tim ( her father ) memorial service and burial at Arlington Cemetary we talk about getting together but time gets away from you. My love and prayers are with my Aunt Joyce, and cousins. Love Phyllis Patton
