“ Tammie I really miss you my friend. You have come to mind a lot this week, sometimes it just hurts but most times you bring a smile to my face and a laugh of some of the times we shared. Be at peace, know you will always be in my heart. Love you Tam Tam!!

“ Josh & Britt, and family, I am so sorry to learn of Tammie's passing. I loved her so much when yall were little kids. She was so much fun and a pleasure to be around. I wished I would have kept in touch with her. I'll never forget the last time I saw her @ Pitt's, she was laughing and talking a mile a minute. God please comfort the family. ”

“ There are only 3 words....I love you! The memories you have left me with are huge! You were such a vital part of my life for over 30 years. That daily phone call or text from you will never come again, but, I will see you again and we will be pain free and happy. Our conversations will be much different then, I have so much to share with you of some of the new memories that have been shared with me, you are going to laugh, I promise. I still talk to you and I laugh with each conversation. You probably now are looking down and seeing just how loved you are...we always used to talk about this day and when it came and I always told you, I would go 1st...you always were more competitive than me....all of those canasta games....yep, you did win the majority, but you won the final game, you got to meet our Lord and Savior first...I'm jealous and I surrender, you truly are the best at all things....Tammie, my heart is breaking and I promise to keep all the memories very much alive and promise to do all I can for Brit, Josh and the kids. Until we meet again, yep, you go fly high and rest on that mountain...no-one deserves that peace more than you. Thank you for everything, I promise to try and keep the laughter going, just as you would want me to do!

I love you Tamm, my friend, my sister, my confidante, my everything....rest in peace and I'll see you soon...each day that passes, is one day closer to seeing you again...get those cards ready, because I'm not letting you win anymore :-)

With all my heart...I love you forever!
