“ Some of my fondest childhood memories are from the days we all ate Sunday meals at Granddaddy Dykes' house. I remember fondly hearing Uncle Rueben and all the aunts singing together. Prayers for strength and peace for you all. Love, Lisa Garrett Dean

“ My Mother, Ruby, always had a special fondness of her very musically talented older brother, Reuben. She loved the days when the whole family gathered on the front porch of the old home place and played guitars to gospel songs while all the grandchildren watched and played together in the yard. Those were good times. Days long gone, but not forgotten.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I have known Tom thru Ham Radio for 25 years.

Tom was a first class stand up kind of guy. I am sure your family is and has been very proud of him. The ham radio community will miss him.

We will keep you family in our prayers
