“ Dear Michelle,
My sympathies to you & your family in the passing of Tommy. My memories of him was when he laid the brick on front of house and sod the front yard. He was certainly busy at his task but not to busy to stop and chat with a neighbor walking her dog.

“ Dearest Michelle and your Family: My deepest sympathy goes out to each of you. We grew up together at Grant Park Christian and will always have these sweet memories. I would have been at the Service today but did not know about this until heard the church message, which was AFTER THE SERVICE. with all my Love, linda and larry parker
