“ It was my great privilege to worship with Tom and his family, but also to be his dentist for many years. As successful entrepreneurs, we often shared thoughts: How did we get here? What did we do to set our businesses apart from others? How can we ensure that we will always offer our clients the very best? And, one day, Tom brought me a box of coffee mugs that said: "Whatever it takes..." Yeah. That was Tom. The impeccable entrepreneur, businessman, community builder, philanthropist, God-fearing, family-loving, unforgettable friend. I'm missing him already, but so very thankful that he made such a positive impact upon my life and the lives of many others. What a joy that we were buds. Godspeed, dear Tom. And the Heavens say: "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

As well as the group Scuba diving trips, and scuba certification of 4 family members. Tom will be missed I will cherish the memories.*
