“ I am heartbroken. I just learned of Frank’s passing. I hadn’t seen Frank in many years but we used to work together and go to church together. Great guy who loved God and served Him, loved his family and his country. And everyone liked Frank. He was always a cut-up and would leave you smiling or laughing. Very sad to have heard this. Our prayers for Beth and the family. So sorry for your loss.

“ Frank was an amazing person, and I really looked up to him and admired him. He could be tough on me sometimes :), but he also made sure I always felt like he was looking out for me, because that's the kind of guy he was, he looked out for everyone. He taught me so much by his example and by sharing his knowledge, experience, and expertise. I know I'll continue to think about him and be grateful for the time we worked together, and the lessons he graciously shared with me.

And he was just a great guy to be around. A true servant-leader in every sense, he was certainly the kind of guy you knew you could trust and follow, because he would never ask you to do anything he wouldn't do or hasn't already done. I admire his service to our country, his love for our country and his loyalty to Chick-fil-A, and his unwavering devotion to his faith. We talked once or twice a week, mostly about work, but even then he really is someone that made a lifelong impression on me, and I'll miss him dearly. My sincere condolences to his family.

“ Frank was like an older brother to me. As my manager at work, he was a great spiritual mentor, advisor, and friend. I will always admire his service to his country as a Marine. Frank was as devoted to his family as anyone I've ever known and he loved Beth and his children so deeply. I'll miss him so much on this earth and can't wait to see him again in heaven.

“ Frank is one of the few real men I’ve had the privilege of knowing. He loved his wife and children with all that he had, and then some. He helped God transform me into the man and leader I am today. From racquetball, to work, to taking walks and him teaching me how to be “loud” by practicing his marine voice, he is a friend whom I love dearly. I look forward to seeing him again.

“ Frank was a rare example of being a good neighbor. Always willing to help, generous with time and talent, he was faithful, devoted to his family, loved his Lord, and was a light in the darkness. To his family, my prayers are with you, I know the grief of "losing" a father. But he isnt lost, we know where he is, and heaven is a little bit sweeter to us now. Tis so sweet to trust in Jesus, just to take Him at His word, just to rest upon His promise, just to know thus saith the Lord.

To me Frank was always a quite, gentle soul that I had the privilege to work with on occasion. He always came across to me as someone who was always thinking, and had a calm exterior. I had the chance to do a workshop with him this year, it was with LEGO blocks, and he amazed me with his building skills and his insight into each build. I didn't get the chance to work with him often, but I am so thankful for the encounters I had with him, and I am honored to know such a gentle and caring man. He will be missed very much by those of us who knew him at Chick-fil-A.

*My prayers and sympathies go out to his family.

My heart is so sad to hear of Frank's departure from this world. He loved Jesus as much as anyone I ever met. I was blessed to be friends of he and Beth and their precious children at First Baptist Snellville. He chaired the Prayer Group I attended and we all grew closer to God and each other. May God richly bless his family in the days to come. My prayers will continue for them.

Since meeting Frank seven years ago when I began work at Chick-fil-A, we would have a cup of coffee together on a regular basis to share in our love for God, our families and country. Frank was such a good man...I will miss him.

Frank and I were both ordained as Deacons together on September 8th 2002 at FBC Snellville, it was with shock and sadness that I learned of his passing on the 19th year anniversary of that event.

Although there were other great men that were there on that Sunday evening, none stood out in my mind as Frank did; his testimony of not only salvation, but his baptism while in the desert moved me and I have shared that story from pulpits since hearing it long ago.

Frank was serious about his relationship with Christ and gave me reassurance that God was still making "real" men that loved Him.

It has been many years since we have spoken, but the emotions came on strong when I saw his face, pictures of his wife and family, and thought of his impact.

May our mutual Lord and Savior be with you all during this most difficult time.

Love in Christ,
