“ Toni was my friend from the first day we met. Debbie Evans introduced us at Intelsat. Good times is all I can say about Toni. She would always get pissed at me when I visited especially when talking about Mickey and Molly since she and I picked them out after I told her to get them as we drove by the sale sign. 😊 Have fun with the kids in heaven Toni! God Bless you girlfriend.

“ I always loved visiting Toni. She would always say let's go do something but we would wind up talking half the night. It was lots of memories from high school and bits and pieces of our lives after school. She was so funny... Had a wicked sense of humor! I will really miss her!

“ When I think of Toni, I automatically feel relaxed. I don't know what it was about her, but whenever I got stressed out at Intelsat (too often!) she always seemed to sense it and would swing by my office or invite me over to hers to “chill out” awhile and talk about books. I admired her ability to speak her mind while maintaining her impressive work ethic. And I was truly grateful to have remained on her “good side”! :) When I heard she was sick it hurt my heart. We texted a few times but I truly wish I'd kept more in touch with her after we both left the company! She was a true friend who always had a kind word to spare. Whenever I crack a book I'll always think of Toni.

“ So much...books, trivia, dogs (rescue kittens!), geese, ducks, museums...and the funny stories! Toni had such a great sense of humor. Loved hearing her ask, "Linda G whatcha doin?"...

We'll all catch you on the flip side, Toni. We're not done.

“ Toni, Jim, Jean and Slim were larger than life when we were children. So much excitement - the Morgan's are coming to town! We would shop at the farmers market, visit the Pagoda, hang around Nana's house, bake AP cakes and laugh until we hurt. Then they would fly off again to all parts of the world.

I will so miss our long phone calls and Toni's visits to Reading. I have lost a cousin and a good friend.

*Love you,
Nan*

“ Toni was a great conversationalist and endlessly fascinating. I enjoyed the time I got to spend with her, little though it was. She will be sorely missed.

“ When I moved into the condos, Toni and I used to walk our dogs together. We became fast friends as well as sisters in our hearts. We were “partners in crime” as well as friends. It broke my heart when she moved to GA but I took care of renting out her condo and any else she needed done here. I visited a couple of times and she came out here a few times and it was just like the old days. We laughed a lot and I loved turning her on to some movies I liked. I missed her before but I'm really going to miss her now. Peace to you my friend and I hope you will be with all your animals. Love you Toni.

“ I can't really remember when Toni came into our lives on Hampton Trail. She just was always a part of our family. There isn't a holiday memory that doesn't include her. She was a cool person who my family loved dearly. She will be forever missed.

“ I met Toni at Hughes Aircraft Company around 1987. She was the instigator of planning gambling trips to Laughlin, NV. There were many trips and many memories. We became fast friends and continued our association for over thirty years! My condolences to Jimmy... Toni enlighten our lives...peace.

Toni was my best friend in the world. I loved her dearly and will miss her every day. Some said they didn't know whether to believe the stories of all the people she had met over her lifetime. Take a look at some of the photos, you might recognize someone famous.

*Love you girl.

Toni was an awesome friend. We spent time together going to Barnes & Noble for a new book then lunch some where. Toni was so easy to talk. I will always miss the lunch dates, the phone calls and texting. I was fortunate that I did get to see her in late February early March before Covid kicked in. It never occurred to me it would be the last time I would get to see her!!

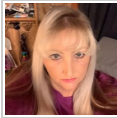

*You are loved and you will be missed,
Doris*

We loved each other and in our last texts to each other we shared that! I'll have to save those in a special place. Not a romantic love, but a deep friendship. She was a dear friend that always made you feel important. I loved to laugh with her and we both used each other's shoulders when we needed comfort. She also supported my love for Alabama football and helped me and Dave Williams design a table for a competition. We also had a mutual respect for each other at work. She loved to talk about the books she was reading, even brought me one once saying "Marky, you will enjoy this book!" It was about the skies over New York after 911. I am blessed to have known her. Earth lost some of its luster with her passing. God be with you, Toni.

To know Toni was to love her I have never and probably will never meet such a wonderful, caring, & interesting person in this lifetime. We have all lost a rare and a precious gem. RIP dear friend until we meet again I will remain forever heartbroken.

Toni and I were office neighbors for several years at PanAmSat/Intelsat and would frequently commiserate over workplace drama (and the comedy). She was genuine, funny, full of great stories, and possessed a backbone of iron. I think of her every time I pass her old office.

Rest in peace, Toni. You'll be missed.

I met Toni at PanAmSat / Intelsat Cafe and we instantly became friends. She would invite me over to her home where I had the wonderful pleasure of being introduced to Mickey and Molly, two of the kindest dogs you would ever meet. From then on, Toni and I would occasionally chat with the sporadic visit sprinkled in through the years. After a mutual friend informed me of her illness, I made it my mission to visit her at the hospital and true to Toni form, we picked up like we had never been apart. She asked if I would get her some chili mac from the cafe because it smelled so good and a Fanta orange soda because she had a taste for it. I quickly obliged. During our conversation Toni said, "I have been wondering what Heaven is like?" I shrugged my shoulders and said "what do you think?" She said, "I imagine it's like leaving your dog at home and when you open the door he is so happy and jumping all around that you are back." I said, "I'm quite sure that is exactly what Heaven is like."

So jump all around my sweet Angel, jump!
