“ Mr. Skipper, it was with great sadness that I read of the loss of your wife, Velma. Please know that I extend my condolences to you. I will always remember you making us memorize the Declaration of Independence - those were good years.

“ My deepest condolences to the Skipper family. I always had very fond memories of Mrs. Skipper, coming over to her house to take piano lessons with Dr. Skipper. She was a wonderful lady and I know she will be missed.
