“ Bill and Angela: what a great picture here of Vicki. Just the way I will always remember her. The tributes already from others are the very same from me. Even tho we did not get to talk and see each other often enough, I still feel a very close connection to Vicki. She came to our house and us four "girls" rode to a '59 RHS lunch meeting together and had the best time. Same when she and I met and had lunch together. Same when I saw her at our church. Crosspoint CC. It is great that we know the very special neighbors you had on Christopher Lane. What a wonderful time for all of you. (Larry and Lewis/Porky Jones were very best friends, the entire families, while growing up.) My sincere sympathy to you and your entire Family. love, larry and linda parker

I am going to miss that dear, sweet lady. We had so much fun together. She was like a daughter to me. She was so talented and I know that now she is singing with the angels in Heaven around the throne of God.
