

Vickie Fox Woods

February 15, 1957 - July 17, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Vickie Fox Woods, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. Vickie was born on February 15, 1957, in Vicenza, Italy, to William and Cyrana Fox. She passed away on July 17, 2025, leaving a legacy of love, kindness, and strength that will be cherished by all who knew her.

Vickie was a devoted wife to her husband, Mike Woods, with whom she shared 50 wonderful years of marriage. Vickie is survived by her loving son, Michael (Courtney) Woods, and her cherished daughter, Lynnsey (Joe) Goddard. She was a proud grandmother, known affectionately as "Gran Gran" to her four granddaughters: Madison Woods, Kirsten Goddard, Lexie Goddard, and Macie Goddard. They were her pride and joy, and her love for them was endless. Vickie is also survived by her devoted mother, Cyrana (Passmore) Fox, and her sister, Teresa Smith. She was preceded in death by her father, William Nall Fox.

Vickie dedicated her career to serving as a Cafeteria Manager for the Rockdale County School Systems, a position she held with pride for 30 years. Her caring nature extended beyond her own family; she looked after and cared for her school kids as if they were her own. Known for her honesty and sass, Vickie had a unique way of expressing her thoughts without sugarcoating them, often sharing her wisdom with her signature saying, "God don't like ugly." She was not only kind but also fiercely protective of those she loved.

A devoted Christian woman, Vickie found joy in her faith and exemplified the values of love and compassion. Her favorite color was pink, a reflection of her vibrant personality and passionate heart.

A funeral service will be held at Scot Ward's Green Meadow Chapel on Wednesday July 23, 2025, at 2:00 PM with a committal service following at Fairview Memorial Gardens in Stockbridge, GA. Visitation for family and friends will be held on Tuesday July 22, 2025 from 5:00 PM - 7:00 PM at the funeral home.
