“ Bob was a dear friend and "Brother-in-Red"! When God first put the calling of Santa in my heart, it was Bob who mentored me. Along with Santa Charlie Barker who preceded Bob in the chair at the Galleria. I owe everything I do in "The Suit" to Santa Bob and Santa Charlie! I will miss Bob as I do Charlie. I offer my prayers of comfort and peace to his wife Judy, and family, his friends and his "Brothers-In-Red"! Go rest high Bob, your work is done! (The photo is of Bob and me, when he visited me and Susie Claus, backstage at my workshop at The Woodlands Mall)

“ Judy, I'm so sorry for your loss! Bobby and my sister, Dale, were born on the same day, same year. They always laughed about that. The last time I saw you two was at a family reunion, but that's been several years ago. If there is anything I can do for you, please do not hesitate to let me know. You and your family are in my prayers. Carol Mallory (Hilda's middle daughter).
