

Wanda Owens Teasley

September 9, 1922 - October 3, 2024

We are announcing with heavy hearts the passing of Wanda Teasley. Who left us on October the 3rd, 2024 at the age of 102. She was born in Corbin, KY on September the 9th, 1922.

During her years she left Kentucky to attend Knoxville Business College, then on to get 2 teaching certificates. She moved north to Ohio to work for the government then transferred back south where she remained. She then worked for Atlanta Gas Company for 35 years where she later retired. While being retired she started traveling with friends and family. Her favorite vacation destinations were Alaska and Las Vegas. She also was an avid reader, taking her daily walks through the neighborhood, making Afghans, and playing bingo.

She attended First Baptist Church of Conyers where she was always on the very back row, and she was also a member of the XYZ Club.

She is survived by many friends and caregivers who were amazingly kind and helpful with her during her sickness the last four months. She loved each and every one of them.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Della and Claud Owens, Stepfather, Joaquin Maranje, sister, Betty Phipps, brother-in-law, James Paul Phipps. She is survived by niece, Paula Phipps.

Those who knew her were truly blessed and we know her memory will live on in our hearts.

Rest in peace Aunt Wanda. I love you
