“ I will never forget Forrest. I can remember how hard we laughed together when working silly temporary jobs at Kelly services. We actually worked together at Mead for a few days and were asked to put velcro stickers on binders. The most boring jobs one could ever do. However, it was not boring to us. We told stories, shared dreams, talked about girls and games to melt the time away. Miss you Forrest - Chris Ray

“ Forrest was my best friend for years. We lost track of each other over the years and in the last month I started to search and today, found this page. I worked with him at Reynolds and Reynolds. I am simply stunned reading this. My heart hurts and I am desperate for information. I will never forget spending time with him, his brother Mike and his family. I have countless memories of us working together and fond memories of us goofing around. I will always miss him and regret that we let distance be an obstacle

“ Rest in peace my brother, my friend. I know how much you loved Jesus and longed to be in his loving embrace. All pain, struggle and suffering released as he receives you. Thank you for all that you've done, stood for and meant to me and our family. Love you brother.
Mike

I am so sorry he's gone! I decided to find him and you on the internet today after sharing memories of the Hill family with my mom. I believe the last time I saw him, I was in my early 20's. I will always have nightmares and happy memories of you and Forrest. The nightmares are from the scary stories you guys would tell me of the "ghost dog, among one" in your backyard ever time we slept over. I was always the kid with "koodies", being chased by you two or chasing the two of you. Happy times with you guys for me was knowing that you had my back no matter what. You were both the brothers I never had but always wanted. I know it's been a while since he passed but I had to comment as soon as I found out. Not sure if you will ever see this but please know that I have and always will remember you, Forrest Jr., Forrest Sr. and your precious mom, Susan, and of course Maxwell. I pray for you and your family and Maxwell and his family. Always wishing and praying for the best for you guys!! I miss you and hope that you are well! I'm devastated that he's gone!

So much love your way! Courtney Smith, aka, Courtney Hall
