“ When we would go to Synod, people would tap Fr. Bill on the shoulder thinking he was another Priest.... He would turn and say they are this tall, wearing a Black Suit, with a beard ( that was the description of half the priests there ) and he would chuckle

“ I met Bill in the York Rite. Bill was a kind and generous man that was an inspiration to many. When I'm asked by people what Masonry is about, I state that " It makes good man better." Bill was a reflection of that statement. Whenever, I spoke to him he lifted my spirit. I will miss him greatly.

“ I came to know Bill through the Masonry, in particular the York Rite. He was a great inspiration to me. We all looked forward to his message at every meeting. He had a way of getting your attention. He will be missed but we will always feel his presence.

“ I came to know Bill when he worked as a volunteer at our local sheriff's office. The days he came to work made my day...not so much for the many hours of work he helped us with, but, being of like mind, the conversations we had. Bill is in a better place now, which brings to mind a hymn...God Be With You Till WE Meet Again...with the refrain Till we meet at Jesus feet...where we will meet again in God's own time one day if the name of Jesus we take. I look forward to that day. Bill will be missed and Jane and I will be praying for Valerie and his family at this time of sadness.
